

Chewing Gum and Hard Candy Forming and Cutting Device

Unit is operated by hand and is therefore very easy to use. The piece weight can be adjusted and, if necessary, even the shape according to customer requirements.

Filled hard candies can also be produced on a laboratory scale.

Available with and without a pedestal on castors.

Specifications

|                                   |                            |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Working width (mm)                | 300 x 200                  |
| Height (mm)                       | 390                        |
| Device substructure (mm)          | 580                        |
| Standard size of finished product | 19 x 11 x 5mm, approx. 3 g |
| Weight                            | about 25 kg                |